

We packed up the Van

And headed west

West to Parkes they said that's the best

To the Elvis Festival where the action is

Blue suede shoes got put in the boot

To have them ready when the music suits

The ole hound dog howled to be kind

And I yelled ' stop having a suspicious mind

If you don't stop barking , I'm going to the heartbreak Hotel

You are like a devil in disguise I yelled !

The old hound dog jumped in the boot

And bit a hole in my blue suede shoe

I was all shook up Ah ha ah ha

My dog said yeah yeah I'm in love

I said ok get in the car, we are going to Parkes

And you will howlLove me tender ...to dark

You won't be lonesome tonight ,

Everything will be alright together at Elvis

Festival,alright. Ah ha ah ha

Thank you verrrry much. 😊
